Island life

BARBADOS & ANTIGUA

We can't think of a better way to unwind post wedding than sitting on a beach in the Caribbean (cocktail in hand, natch), and an island-hopping adventure to Barbados and Antigua is just the ticket. Kick off with some Bajan-style romance at the Coral Reef Club. Relax around the pool, or go snorkeling before dinner at the hotel restaurant – a table for two overlooking the ocean is a must.

The flight to neighbouring Antigua only takes an hour; and you can enjoy some serious luxury at Carlisle Bay. This high-end hotel even offers afternoon tea served on the beach.

Don't miss: Take the catamaran to Barbuda for the day to discover the island's pink sand beaches – it's an easy day trip from Antigua.

Stay here: Turquoise Holidays offer five nights at Coral Reef Club, followed by five nights at Carlisle Bay from £2,664pp. International and inter-island flights, private transfers and breakfast are included.
